

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY, PORTLAND
SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT
BUSINESS EDUCATION PROGRAM

Adjunct Faculty: Business Education Programs

Concordia University, Portland, founded in 1905, is a member of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod's Concordia University System.

Concordia University seeks adjunct business faculty to teach a variety of courses within its Business Education programs for 2009 Fall Semester. Faculty is needed for the following subject areas:

- Advanced Accounting
- Quantitative Methods
- Finance
- Marketing

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Commitment to the Christian faith
2. Ph.D. or terminal degree in the field is preferred. Master in Business or Master's in a related discipline meets minimum requirements.
3. Proven success with college-level teaching
4. Significant senior level business experience required.

SALARY:

The salary for these positions is based on the current adjunct faculty salary scale, and will be commensurate with the position and the candidate's educational background and professional experience. Positions to begin 2009 Fall Semester.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:

POSITIONS OPEN UNTIL FILLED.

Application packets should include a letter of interest, Concordia application, curriculum vitae or resume, and contact information for three professional references. Please send all materials via email or mail to:

Theresa Culbertson, Ed.M.
Program Coordinator
School of Management
Concordia University
2811 NE Holman St.
Portland, OR 97211

E-mail: tculbertson@cu-portland.edu

For an application and additional information about Concordia University, please visit our website:

<http://www.cu-portland.edu/aboutcu/employment.cfm>

Concordia University, Portland is a regionally accredited, private university that specializes in undergraduate and graduate programs of professional study grounded in a strong Lutheran Liberal Arts tradition. Concordia University does not discriminate in the employment of individuals on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, disability, sex or age. However, Concordia University is an institution of The Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod and, to the extent allowed by law, Concordia University reserves the right to give preference in employment based upon religion.