

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY, PORTLAND
COLLEGE OF HEALTH & HUMAN SERVICES
NURSING PROGRAM

Adjunct Clinical Instructors: Nursing

Concordia University, Portland, founded in 1905, is a member of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod's Concordia University System.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Under the direction of the Director of Concordia University's Nursing Program, adjunct clinical instructors will:

1. Teach one section of undergraduate students in the clinical setting.
2. Assist in the skills laboratory as needed.

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Commitment to the Christian faith
2. B.S.N.; Master's degree preferred
3. Prior clinical teaching experience preferred

SALARY:

Salary is determined by the number of clinical hours required for the course.
Positions start August 2010.

NOMINATION / APPLICATION PROCEDURES:

POSITIONS OPEN UNTIL FILLED.

Applications should include a cover letter outlining the applicant's background-qualifications, Concordia application, curriculum vitae/resume, and contact information for three professional references. Please send all materials via email, mail, or fax to:

Donna Bachand, RN, Ph.D.
Interim Director of the Nursing Program
College of Health & Human Services
Concordia University
2811 NE Holman St.
Portland, OR 97211
Fax: 503-280-8124
E-mail: dbachand@cu-portland.edu

For an application and additional information about Concordia University, please visit our website:
<http://www.cu-portland.edu/aboutcu/employment.cfm>

Concordia University, Portland is a regionally accredited, private university that specializes in undergraduate and graduate programs of professional study grounded in a strong Lutheran Liberal Arts tradition. Concordia University does not discriminate in the employment of individuals on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, disability, sex or age. However, Concordia University is an institution of The Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod and, to the extent allowed by law, Concordia University reserves the right to give preference in employment based upon religion.