CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW | BOISE, IDAHO

Boise's first-ever law school, Concordia University School of Law, opens in August 2011 with 75 students enrolled in the first class of a three-year program. Another will follow, and then another.

These students will be among the region's best and brightest, our future leaders, who will gain access to advanced knowledge in both the letter – and spirit – of the law.

To accomplish this, they need a community of supporters – a Scholar Society – to join them in this commitment to furthering their personal success, ethical conduct and civic engagement.

As an individual, firm, bar association, or business, you can seed the future for one or more of these students who have demonstrated need with your pledge of $5,000 per year tax-exempt gift for three consecutive years. And, Concordia University will match your gift with a tuition waiver, reducing each student's out-of-pocket tuition by $10,000 per year.

Please join us – the Concordia University's School of Law, the Dean's Advisory Council, and the John P. Nagel Foundation – to create a new legacy in the heart of downtown Boise of graduating civic and business leaders from a Law School that integrates giving back and building a better world.

Become a Scholar Society member by contacting Dean Cathy Silak at csilak@cu-portland.edu or 208-955-1001.
