2015 4TH ANNUAL CONTEST THEME:

Your artwork must include a letter of the alphabet to correspond with something that you like about the library. For example: B is for books—my favorite thing in the library. Then draw what you have described, including the letter “B” as part of your drawing. Read these rules before you begin:

- Create your bookmark on this form only.
- Entry form must not be enlarged or reduced
- Check for correct spelling
- Use markers, crayons, pencils, pens, or watercolor. (Note: gel pens do not photocopy well.)
- Artwork must be original—no copyrighted images, characters from books, TV, movies, comics, etc.
- You may add your signature to the art

Entries can be dropped off at Concordia University Library circulation desk or mailed to:

Concordia University Library
Attention: Linda Church
2811 NE Holman Street,
Portland, OR 97211

Entries cannot be returned. Please make copies prior to submission.

Good luck! All entries must be postmarked December 4,
Contestants can submit only one bookmark design. Contestants must enter the appropriate division based on their current grade school level:

Division I: Kindergarten/Grade 1
Division II: Grade 2/Grade 3
Division III: Grade 4/Grade 7

Judges consider the theme ideas to be an integral part of the contest. All entries will be judged by a team of community authors, artists, and Concordia staff/faculty. The winners and honorable mentions in each division will be recognized at a special reception to be held in the George R. White Library and Learning Center, Concordia University on January 8, 2014 at 4:00—6:30 pm. The author of B is for Bear, Hannah Viano, is a guest at our awards ceremony this year. She will read from her new book and demonstrate how she creates her art. All family, friends, school teachers, and school administrators of winners and honorable mentions are invited to attend the ceremony. Refreshments provided.
